MBK Induction

A new chapter begins. Through the MBK induction, students come together to embrace leadership, brotherhood, and a shared commitment to growth. This moment marks the start of a journey rooted in purpose, unity, and the values that will guide them forward.

FEATURED SCHOLAR

STARLAH BROOKS

Hello, my name is Starlah Brooks, and I represent Clark Atlanta University. My favorite subject is Participation in Government, and my favorite hobby is dance. What keeps me motivated is my family and the desire to make them proud by always striving to be the best version of myself.

PRINCIPAL'S CORNER

Dr. Asya Johnson Founding IA Principal

In the spirit of Ubuntu, "I am because we are"—we enter this new year grounded in community, hope, and shared purpose. New beginnings invite reflection, renewal, and recommitment, and I am deeply grateful for the trust you place in HBCU Early College Prep.

Together, we are building more than a school; we are cultivating scholars, leaders, and future change-makers rooted in legacy, excellence, and collective responsibility. Thank you for your partnership, your belief, and your unwavering support. May this year bring growth, joy, and new possibilities for our scholars and our entire HBCU Early College Prep family. Happy New Year
