

MBK Veterans Service project

Students proudly participated in the MBK Veterans Service Project, coming together to support and honor those who served. Through teamwork, dedication, and a strong sense of community, they turned this initiative into a meaningful learning experience that reflects the values of respect, service, and civic engagement.

PRINCIPAL'S CORNER

Dr. Asya Johnson Founding IA Principal

This Women's History Month, we proudly celebrate the legacy, brilliance, and enduring impact of Black women; past, present, and future. Their leadership, resilience, innovation, and courage have shaped our communities, transformed our nation, and continue to inspire the next generation of changemakers.

At our school, we honor the contributions of Black women not only as historical figures, but as educators, scholars, leaders, and visionaries who walk our halls every day. We are committed to ensuring that our students see themselves reflected in stories of excellence, strength, and possibility. As we uplift these powerful narratives, we also challenge our scholars to carry this legacy forward with purpose, pride, and a commitment to justice and equity. Together, we celebrate the voices that have too often been overlooked and affirm that Black women's history is not only essential, but it is American history.

"CHANGE WILL NOT COME IF WE WAIT FOR SOME OTHER PERSON OR SOME OTHER TIME."

FEATURED SCHOLAR

ARIANNA BAILEY

My name is Arianna Bailey. I have a strong interest in both traditional and digital art. After high school, I plan to broaden my skills through programs focused on law and public speaking. One principle I always follow is to be "someone my past self can look up to and someone my future self will be proud of."
